“ Geneva was a very special person. As her next door neighbor (many years ago) I was a young bride and then a young Mother. She was a dear friend and a Mentor to me. My thoughts and Prayers are with the Family.

“ Aunt Geneva was a beautiful caring woman who welcomed me into her family with open arms. She touched our family with her graciousness and patience and lived as a great example of a woman who lived her faith. She will be greatly missed.

“ Although it's sad for us here, we can be comforted knowing that she is in a happier place in Heaven. I am glad I got to see her one last time at Christmas, but it will always be the Granny Culbreath of my childhood, bringing gifts back from her trips with Senior Friends, that I will remember.
